

Cadia History Part 5

PHOTOGRAPHS OF THE WEBB AND ANDREW FAMILIES OF NSW

By courtesy of Douglas Johnson, it has been possible to put faces to descendants of Stephen and Caroline Webb who were in Cadia for the early days of the Mine and the Cadia Village. Some of the story of their lives is told in the Cadia History Part 2 which the author prepared from a Descendancy Narrative provided by Douglas Johnson. The author gratefully acknowledges the assistance which Douglas Johnson has given in providing these photographs.

While there are no photographs available for Stephen and Caroline Webb who both died in the 19th Century, their sons Stephen and George, their wives and children, and their descendants are well represented. Stephen and George Webb both married daughters of Edward Andrew and Susannah nee Larbey so that the Andrew family is appears in these photographs.

Susannah Andrew nee Larbey

Susannah nee Larbey was the mother of Jane and Ann Emma Andrew. The photo on the left was likely to have been taken near the end of the 19th Century. The Photo of the Memorial Card to Susannah relates to her death on 28 September 1907 at the age of 77 years.
